

A child looks at security personnel guarding the Federal Courthouse as hundreds of protesters in downtown Los Angeles, California, gather for a "Justice for Trayvon" rally on Saturday, July 20, 2013. The rally protested the decision in the George Zimmerman murder trial, and demanded justice for Trayvon Martin. (Luis Sinco/Los Angeles Times/MCT)

Questions for image analysis.

Note to teacher: When showing the image, do not have students read the title or caption until they have worked through the questions and explained their answers.

1. What do you see in this image?
2. What do you know about this topic/subject?
3. Read the caption. What do you learn about the image? How has the caption helped you understand the image (situation)?
4. What does the photographer hope to accomplish?
5. Who is the intended audience? How do you know?